CARF International announced that Community Workforce Solutions, Inc. has been accredited for a period of three years for its Community Employment Services, Community Integration, Comprehensive Vocational Evaluation Services, Employee Development Services, and Organizational Employment Services. The latest accreditation is the thirteenth consecutive Three-Year Accreditation that the international accrediting body, CARF, has awarded to Community Workforce Solutions, Inc.

This accreditation decision represents the highest level of accreditation that can be awarded to an organization and shows the organization's substantial conformance to the CARF standards. An organization receiving a Three-Year Accreditation has put itself through a rigorous peer review process. It has demonstrated to a team of surveyors during an on-site visit its commitment to offering programs and services that are measurable, accountable, and of the highest quality.

Community Workforce Solutions, Inc. is a private, nonprofit organization dedicated to supporting persons with disabilities or other barriers to employment as each individual strives to achieve the employment and community integration goals of their choice.

CARF is an independent, nonprofit accrediting body whose mission is to promote the quality, value, and optimal outcomes of services through a consultative accreditation process that centers on enhancing the lives of the persons served. Founded in 1966 as the Commission on Accreditation of Rehabilitation Facilities, and now known as CARF International, the accrediting body establishes consumer-focused standards to help organizations measure and improve the quality of their programs and services.
